DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fox et al.
3. As per claims 1, 4-5, 8, Fox et al. discloses a method of providing secure access to a service on a service web server(see col. 2, lines 10-18, 26-28) including, maintaining at a permission web server a first permission(see col. 6, lines 53-62), wherein the first permission includes a label related to the service and a digital signature of a first user(see col. 2, lines 25-43); providing access to the first permission to a second user upon the second user authenticating to the permission web server(see col. 7, lines 37-67, col. 8, lines 1-13); providing the second user a permission including the first permission and a permission link including the label and a digital signature of the permission web server(see col. 7, lines 37-67, col. 8, lines 1-13); receiving at the service web server from the second user a request to access the service; receiving the permission from the second user at the service web server(see col. 13, lines 44-67, col. 14, lines 1-20); verifying the digital signature of the permission web server and the digital signature of the first user in the permission; and providing the second user access to the service if step(f) produces a positive result(see col. 10, lines 55-67).

4. As per claim 2, Fox et al. discloses wherein the first and second user are the same(see col. 7, lines 1-8).
5. As per claim 3, Fox et al. discloses wherein the label including a URL for identifying the service(see col. 2, lines 10-25).
6. As per claim 6, Fox et al. discloses wherein the subsequent permission is delegated to the subsequent user via electronic mail(see col. 15, lines 34-41).
7. As per claim 7, Fox et al. discloses wherein the subsequent permission is delegated to the subsequent user by a subsequent web server(see col. 13, lines 44-67, col. 14, lines 1-20).
